MISS KIRKER NOT TO BLAME

One Cent WORD

Little Sarah Sturdivant's Death at Children's Hospital Investigated.

Coroner's Jury Declares It Was the Result of Accident for Which Attendant Was Not Responsible.

An inquest was held at the Children's Hoso'clock yesterday afternoon over the remains of Sarah Sturdivana, the four-yearold colored girl who fell from a secondstory window of the hospital Monday morning, as stated in The Times, and a verdict of accidental death was rendered.

The first witness examined was Miss Mary Kirker, a burse, who was on duty in the coloted ward at the time of the acident. She told the jury that little Sarah, who was convalescing from pneumonia, wandered into the totlet room when witness' attention was directed another way, and she knew nothing more of the child's whereabouts until brought into the hospital in a dying condition.

Matron Rogerts, Drs. Hagner and Craig, President M. W. Goff and others also testified.

It was shown that the dead child must have climbed over several iron bars, across the closet window and crawled over, and quarely fitted with bars and other arrangements to prevent children from fall-ill, though it was shown that she was not After viewing the body the jury brought in a verdict that "the said Sarah Sturdi-vant came to her death by falling from a window on the second floor of the Children's Hospital, about 8:30 o'clock, on August 3, 1895, and we, the jury, believe that it was accidental, and exonerate the attendants from all blame." The body was turned over to the decased child's parents for interment.

MAD DOGS IN HILLSDALE. Four Have Been Killed This Week

by the Frightened Residents. Hillsdale and mad dogs are becoming ynonymous. Three were killed in that own Monday and the residents are beoming much slarmed at the prospect of ncountering a rabid canine anywhere in the street. The outbreak is the result of a visit of a week ago of a little yellow cur, which had an attack of the rables and in his wild caeer communicated the disease to other dogs, until now every dog owner in own among the hills is thinking seriously of arming himself.

A large black hound foaming at the mouth rushed down Stanton avenue last Monday morning. The cry "Mad dog!"

was raised, and Mr. George Fowler ap-peared and killed it with a well-directed ifle shot. Later in the same day a pull pup terrified the residents of the flats and Policeman Allensent the suffering animal to his death. In the evening a third canine, wilder, perhops, than his brothers, made a dash for the trousers of Albert Free. The frightened begro climbed a tree out of reach of the scarling animal, which turned its attention to a Newfoundland dog of much beauty, which was near. The Newfoundland was attacked, and his right hind leg budly

The mad dog was killed by Policeman Reagan, and yesterday morning a resident ham, lot 16, Baldwin's subdivision seeing the Newfoundland panting under a tree, quickly took the big dog's life. The police yesterday notified all residents a dog without a tag will be promptly ar-
